Ken MacLeod The Human Front an infinity plus review

The Human Front is an engagingly-told and well-built story - as you'd expect there's nothing wrong with the syntax or the telling. I dived in with gusto and enjoyed it as far as it went, but the quick ending is very disappointing and left this reviewer simply shrugging his shoulders and moving on to the next book.

The Human Front Ken MacLeod 9781604863956 Books Amazon ca

Anyway, the Human Front is a good little novella. It starts in an alternate history where the US made contact with the LGM in flying saucers sometime in the 1940s, and the events have unfolded very differently given that hard-line anti-communists now have nearly unkillable assault aircraft.

The Human Front a book by Ken Mcleod Book review

The Human Front is a science fiction novel by Ken Mcleod. I read this after finishing the Engines of Light series, and to be honest didn't expect a whole lot from it, especially after finding out that it was only 90 pages long but to my pleasant surprise, my initial views were nothing to go by.
