Yellow Dog begins with great promise and Amis seems to be in top form with his use of language and a very interesting plot structure, but it all falls apart in the second act. As usual in an Amis novel the wordplay is sparkling. Yellow Dog examines in a bizarrely comic plot the way violence and pornography permeate our "sophisticated" culture, how these primitive phenomena percolate through our high-tech, media-saturated world.

Yellow Dog Martin Amis Complete Review

Over-written, overcrowded and underpowered, Yellow Dog is a joyless, boring long-haul flight to nowhere, and a book that leaves you wondering why, if Martin Amis can't be bothered to care about his narrative, or feel any genuine anger about the targets of his satire, then anyone else should."
